People are the key to organizational change and growth. It is the shared resistance or collective resilience of individual contributors that stalls or propels movement towards change success in any organization.

My Future Change Story™ Workshop is an opportunity to maximize the impact of Cassandra Worthy's powerful keynote message by immediately applying the concepts and practices of Change Enthusiasm® to current, real-life change events. This interactive and customizable workshop experience capitalizes on audience energy and engagement after Cassandra's session to deepen the learning experience and support sustained momentum following your event.

Attendees will walk away with the ability to:

- Describe the important part emotion plays in enabling self-actualized growth and learning through change
- Use the My Future Change Story™ tool to make an empowered mindset shift transforming growth-stalling emotions into growth-sustaining fuel
- Use Change Enthusiasm Global's proprietary Perspectives Wheel™ to enable conscious, better-informed choices to maximize the opportunity change presents
- Embody feelings of vibrance and connectedness to their colleagues, armed with a shared language to move forward and champion change together
